NEW ART, NEW ARTISTS:

Pure Gallery is proud to present another new artist being added to our offerings – and another Russian artist, Eugene Segal. Eugene is one of today's most acclaimed European Realists. His work has been showcased in some of the most prestigious venues throughout Europe.

Included images are 'Yachts in Normandy' and 'A Street in Paris' both by Eugene Segal. You may need to stop in to see Segal's visual

"I use the pallet knife in combination with a brush because it gives my work a greater feeling of being alive. The contrast between the two allows for an amazing visual effect."

For the Office:

Give your office a professional edge with beautiful artwork. Shown is a limited edition by Angus Macpherson titled 'Near Beaver Creek'. Angus' work has been used in many business spaces and is included in corporate collections as well. Pure Gallery is carrying his limited editions on paper which means they need to be framed under glass. This is perfect for those public spaces where you might find fingerprints making their way to the artwork since glass can be easily cleaned.

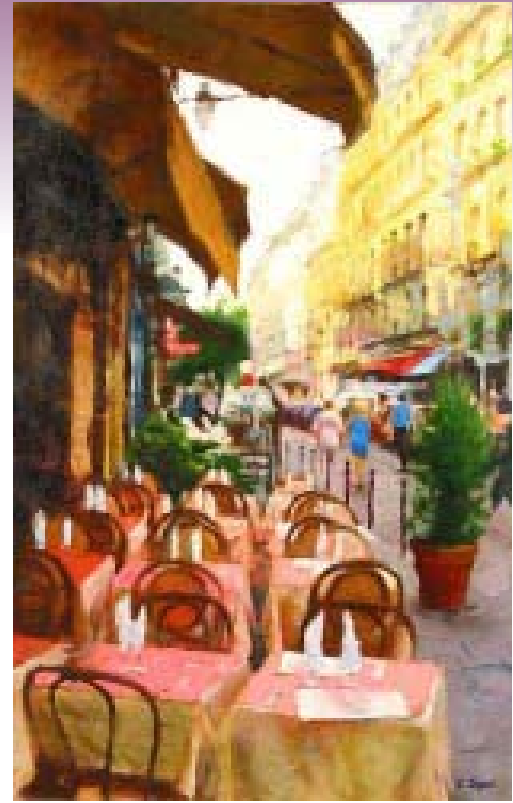

effects for yourself! All pieces are limited editions on canvas and hand embellished with a pallet knife.

News & Events

Pure Gallery will appear in an ad in the July issue of Western Interiors. There will be a full page of 'A Walk on the Beach' by M&I Garmash and Pure Gallery is appearing as one of the partnered galleries. Western Interiors can be purchased at Borders, Barnes & Noble, Waldenbooks and at most airports. If you miss it, please stop by. We will have it!

Sculpture:

Pure Gallery is proud to carry a line of sculpture by world-class artist Govinder. One of the pieces to have caught the eye of most people who stop by is 'Mother & Child'. There is so much detail on this two piece sculpture; you really need to see it to appreciate it. We have several Govinder pieces in the gallery and his prices range from $225 to $450. These limited editions are very affordable and his work always sells out.
